

REMOTE AREA BORDER CROSSING PERMIT

THE RABC PERMIT IS VALID FOR THE FOLLOWING REMOTE AREAS:

- From Pigeon River through to and including Lake of the Woods
- The Canadian shore of Lake Superior
- Cockburn Island
- Sault Ste. Marie (upper lock system)
- Northwest Angle Area

The RABC (Remote Area Border Crossing) permit, allows the bearer to cross the Border into Canada at the above remote areas without reporting to a port of entry, as long as imported goods are declared.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR A RABC PERMIT?

Canadian citizens, permanent residents of Canada, United States citizens and permanent residents of the United States are eligible to apply for a RABC permit.

United States citizens and permanent residents must meet normal visitor legislative requirements, as described under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA), that is, be in good health, be law abiding and have sufficient funds for their stay in Canada. For more information on Immigration requirements for visitors to Canada, please consult the IRCC Web site at www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship.html.

Applicants may not qualify for a permit if they have been previously charged with a contravention of Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) or Immigration legislation; have criminal convictions for which there has not been a pardon or, if they have provided false or incomplete information on the RABC permit application.

PROGRAM CONDITIONS:

- All persons enrolled in RABC with the exception of children under the age of 5, persons who are medically-contraindicated from getting vaccinated and habitual residents of the Northwest Angle who are already exempt from public health measures, are required to be fully vaccinated. Proof must be submitted at the time of application. Those who are exempted of vaccination are also exempted from pre-arrival and on-arrival testing
- Submission of public health information via ArriveCAN prior to each entry into Canada is mandatory.
- Should the definition of fully vaccinated change, permit holders will be required to resubmit their new proof of vaccination to CBSA, including uploading it to ArriveCAN. Permit holders must remain aware of and compliant with current reporting and entry requirements, as they are subject to change.
- Permit holders must remain aware of and compliant with current reporting and entry requirements, as they are subject to change
- Permit holders are not eligible to enter Canada under the RABC program if they tested positive for COVID in the last 10 days or have symptoms of COVID-19.
- Permit holders entering Canada are exempt from mandatory randomized testing.
- Permit holders cannot travel to other parts of Canada without reporting in to a POE.
- RABC permits are valid only for the remote areas listed above and may not be used to cross the border in any other location.
- Individuals crossing at any other location in Canada should consult our Web site at www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca to learn about an alternate reporting program for your area.
- All persons travelling on board a conveyance must have their RABC permit in their possession when they cross the border into Canada at the remote areas identified above. Individuals who are not in possession of a RABC permit, or whose permit has expired must enter at a port of entry. Verifications will be conducted periodically.
- RABC permit holders entering to work in Canada must be in possession of a valid work permit where applicable under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA).
- RABC permit holders entering at a CBSA office open for business will not be exempted from the normal examination process. Dependents travelling separately must have a copy of the CANPASS - RABC permit in their possession.
- All restricted and prohibited firearms must be registered and presented to the CBSA at a port of entry prior to being brought into Canada. Forms are available at 1-800-731-4000, at www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/cfp-pcaf/index-eng.htm or at any CBSA office. If you have any questions about importing a firearm into Canada, please check our Web site at www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca or call the CBSA office nearest you.
- RABC permit holders, who are importing goods that will remain in Canada, or who are importing goods over their personal exemption entitlement, must contact a CBSA office prior to departing from the United States and provide a full description and value of all such goods. A border services officer will issue a reference number to the RABC permit holders and will advise them of the steps they must follow when they arrive in Canada.
